NEW DELHI, INDIA: Bharti Telesoft, a global supplier of value added services and business support solutions, today appointed Navin Sonthalia as the new chief financial officer (CFO).

"We are gearing up for significant growth, both organic and inorganic, in the next couple of years and it is important for us to strengthen our corporate finance and legal functions. With his significant experience in finance and strategy roles with large telecom operators, Navin will play a critical role in engineering Bharti Telesoft's further growth and expansion," said Sanjiv Mital, CEO, Bharti Telesoft.

Sonthalia has over a decade experience in the mobile telecommunications industry in Asia. Most recently, Navin headed the corporate strategy and business support functions in Maxis, Malaysia's mobile operator. Earlier, Navin was the CFO of PT Excelcomindo, Indonesia's third largest mobile operator
