Dear Readers,

COVID-19 has restricted our travel and is preventing us from exploring new places. Many of us are bored at home and are yearning to travel like we did in pre-pandemic times. But returning to normalcy will take some time. In the meanwhile, to satisfy your travel bug, in this edition of Vritti we are taking you on a virtual tour to explore the Fintech landscape of four regions in the world.

We start our journey with India and look at the key milestones achieved by the Indian Fintech industry in the past year in the article “All that happened in India’s FinTech Industry in 2020”.

Next, we travel to the Middle East to see how digital wallets are growing in popularity in the region and what it takes to succeed in the digital wallet business in the article “Digital Wallets take the Centre Stage in the Middle East”.

Further, we visit Africa to explore the relationship between COVID-19 and financial access gender gap in the article “Did COVID-19 Helped in Reducing Financial Access Gender Gap in Africa?”.

We end our journey in Latin America with a closer look at the various aspects and players of Fintech landscape in the region in the article “Finetch Ecosystem of Latin America”.

Happy Reading!
